

POL0012

GDPR Policy

Under the terms of the GDPR regulations, Redashe are required to adopt a policy of total transparency of all personal data held and how it is used. Redashe is fully committed to securing and protecting all data and will never sell or pass on information to any third party, without proper consent.

Listed below are details Redashe may hold, please note, this list is not exhaustive. These details are held electronically and are totally secure.

- Company Name
- Address
- Telephone number
- Email addresses
- Contact Details
- Transactional data

In order to comply with GDPR, consent is required for Redashe to process and store data. Redashe will continue to hold information securely, if an individual or organisation wish to opt-out, this is triggered by an emailed request to info@redashe.com where queries, enquiries, issues or questions can also be discussed.

Signed:

Date: 30/6/26

Print Name: Sile Walsh-Smith

Position: Director