Modern Slavery Policy

Redashe have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and Redashe are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships.

Redashe are committed to ensuring that there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chains and will take appropriate action (including terminating the relationship with any supplier) if Redashe become aware of any evidence of modern slavery, within their processes.

Redashe aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith, even if they turn out to be mistaken. Redashe are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting, in good faith their suspicion that modern slavery in whatever form is or may be taking place in any part of our own business, or in any of our supply chains.
